

Locating Your Inner Bird

----- on -----
Wallasea Island

Lost your feathers? No place seems like a good roost? Tethered to a false self image where you think everyone's a peacock but you? Want to awaken the power of JIZZ (General Identification of Size and Shape) for yourself? Want to experience birding on the salt marshes of Wallasea Island?

This premiere workshop is for you

Locating Your Inner Bird On Wallasea Island

For bird lovers, watchers, fashion enthusiasts and everyone who wants to discover transformation on salt marshes.

Drop-in one-to-one surgeries from 4-5pm (exchange birding stories for inner bird guidance).
A workshop launching Birdwatchers' Wives, a project by artist-in-residence Caroline Smith in partnership with RSPB on Wallasea Island.
